TWENTY CENTS

Pipe drains residents' patience

By Jim Corey
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The replacement of a 250-foot section of drainage pipe in the easement between the 2500 block of Pontoon Road and Stearns Avenue has caused a neighborhood furor.

Residents said construction was begun in February, but weeks went by when nothing was done. Meanwhile, cement pieces weighing several hundred pounds lay next to the digging. Weeds grew to three feet. Fenced water grew stagnant.

A city inspector said the project is almost finished and the site would probably be cleaned up by the end of the week.

Residents say it's high time. Debbie May, of 2511 Pontoon Road, said, "I've contacted the engineering office of the city within the last two weeks. They said that the weather has been the main reason why the trucks can't go back there for the clean-up. That's left us with broken pipe lying there on the back of our yard for months. I won't let my kids play back there. It's too dangerous."

Peter Kelio, who has lived at 2517 Pontoon Road since 1958, said that he has never seen a clean-up like so long. "They finally came out yesterday and cut the weeds and cleared out these two pumps," Kelio said. "All this needs to be re-leveled because the water stands two feet when it rains."

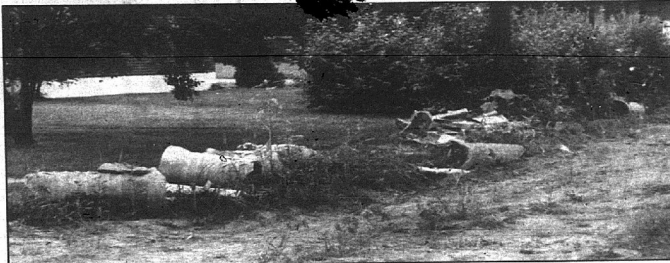

Kelio is also waiting for a replacement of the shrubs and bushes he lost to the project.

John Halwachs was vehement when asked about the mess left behind his back yard. The 20-year resident displayed pictures that he took of the standing water.

"I've talked to the mayor, aldermen, and everybody kept telling me to wait and they'll get the wells out. Well they finally did. There's still the leveling and the clean-up. This is a mess. I don't want to have to live like this."

Halwachs pointed across the street and said, "That work trailer has been sitting there across the street since they started the job."

According to Mac Warfield, street department superintendent, the job was done by an independent contractor. "An outside construction company was hired for the job," Warfield said.

"We've done three jobs similar to that — except we didn't use the wells — in the last one and a half weeks and you should see our clean-up. We did the sewer replacement at Maryville Road, Lydia Lane and on Waterman and Lynch.

Ed Schulze, motor fuel tax engineer for the city, said that an outside contractor was hired because it was cheaper than having the street department do the work. "It would have cost the city $60,000 if divided between the contractor and the city, $36,000 if the city did the work themselves and $25,000 if the work was done strictly by the outside engineer," Schulze said. (See PIPES, Page 6A)

Thompson retiring, race begins

By Dennis McMurray
Staff writer

SPRINGFIELD — After dominating the state political scene longer than anyone in Illinois history, Republican Gov. James Thompson's decision to step aside after next year sets the stage for a scramble within both major parties.

Thompson announced Thursday that he will not seek reelection to an unprecedented fifth term in 1990.

Attorney General Neil Hartigan, a Democrat who announced a campaign for governor and then withdrew in 1986, has received the endorsements of most Democratic leaders, including powerful House Speaker Michael Madigan, D-Chicago, and Chicago Mayor Richard M. Daley.

Hartigan formally launched his campaign for governor at a dinner in Carbondale on Thursday. (See RACE, Page 6A)

GAO: Steel quotas not needed

By Edward T. Hearn
and Andy Stirling
Staff writers

WASHINGTON — The U.S. steel industry no longer needs Reagan-era "import quotas" designed to protect American companies from foreign competition, according to a just-released congressional study.

The General Accounting Office, an investigative arm of Congress, said steel companies have regained "normal levels of profitability" and would not be harmed if the Bush administration halts the quota program in place since 1980.

"The study flatly rejects the steel industry's big lie that it is sick and needs import protection to survive," said Sen. Pete Wilson, R-Calif., who requested the GAO report.

The report said the steel industry's $2.38 billion profit in 1988 was a "dramatic recovery" after having lost money in four out of five years from 1981 to 1988.

"The main effect of extending the quotas would be to protect the steel industry from possible future adverse exchange-rate changes or wage increases," the report said.

The GAO report comes as the Bush administration continues to debate whether to renew the quotas on 29 foreign countries after their expiration on Sept. 30. Steel producers maintain the quotas — also called Voluntary Restraint Agreements (VRAs) — have stemmed the tide of government-subsidized foreign steel entering the U.S., while steel consumers counter by saying the VRAs have produced shortages and higher domestic prices.

'Steel imports — fair or unfair — were not the cause of the domestic industry's problems. Yet the Chicken Littles in the steel industry are still crying they need help.'

—Sen. Pete Wilson

Shortly before his November election, Bush promised in a letter to Sen. John Heinz, R-Penn., that he would support new quotas if the U.S. had failed to achieve an "international consensus" on steel trade.

VRAs discussions at the White House have been underway for about a month, with no date set for an announcement by Bush.

"It's still a pending presidential decision," Bush spokesman B. Jay Cooper said Saturday.

Rep. Jerry Costello, D-Bellefonte, is a co-sponsor of legislation calling for a five-year extension of the quotas. Costello's press secretary, Brian Lott, said Costello has not seen the report.

"But he supports the quotas just because they have been beneficial to the domestic steel industry," Lott said.

National Steel Co., the parent company of Granite City Steel, also supports an extension of the VRAs. A spokesman said the company is not opposed to fair competition from foreign producers, but it does oppose the practice of foreign governments' subsidizing the dumping of steel here at prices designed to hurt domestic producers.

The spokesman, Bob Toothman, said if the VRAs are discontinued the domestic steel producers would have no choice but to sue foreign companies. He said such suits would be costly to both sides.

"It's to everyone's benefit to find an alternative solution," Toothman said.

Toothman said without the VRAs the domestic companies will return to losing money and will be unable to continue pumping money into modernization and paying off the debt incurred in the process of modernization.

"It's essential that we receive some kind of protection," Toothman said. National recorded an $88.2 million net profit in 1988, Toothman said.

The report likely will bolster the claims of Caterpillar Inc., the Peoria, Ill.-based tractor manufacturer that has organized an anti-quota coalition of some 320 steel-using companies.

According to new GAO estimates, the quotas forced up production costs for American steel-using companies and reduced their exports by $1.73 billion from 1985 to 1988. Quotas drove up exports to the U.S. by foreign steel-consuming companies by another $2.4 billion during the same period, the agency concluded.

Sen. Wilson, an outspoken critic of the steel industry effort to extend the quotas another five years, said the report contained more than enough evidence to vindicate his stance against quotas.

"Steel imports — fair or unfair — were not the cause of the domestic industry's problems. Yet the Chicken Littles in the steel industry are still crying they need help," Wilson said.

The GAO said steel imports, boosted by a six-dollar hike, flooded the U.S. market in the early 1980s. Those foreign gains hurt the U.S. steel industry at the same time the United States was entering the 1982 recession. (See STEEL, Page 6A)

Shop 'N Save moving to Kroger

The Shop 'N Save grocery store in Bellemore Village Shopping Center will move into the former Kroger supermarket in Nameoki Village Shopping Center later this year. A 43- by 200-foot addition, to cost $260,000, is being built on the front of the building to bring the size of the store to nearly 40,000 square feet.

Newspaper subscribers help others

New six-month subscribers to the Granite City Press-Record will not only get the local news delivered to their doorsteps, they also will be helping local charitable organizations. During a limited time offer, the Press-Record will donate $1 of the special $7.80 subscription price to the Tri-Cities Area United Way, according to Publisher Rick Jarvis.

Pontoon 'unlocks' development

Pontoon Village trustees created what they hope will be a key to unlocking development of property along Illinois 111 by voting to approve a section of Engineer Road, leading west of the highway just south of Interstate 270. The improvement initially will clear the way for a McDonald's Restaurant and another restaurant to be built nearby.

National honor

Granite City native Sandy Rives of Charleston, Ill., daughter of Margaret Belt of Granite City, was selected to accept a national award on behalf of the Charleston Women's Club for its participation in Expo '88. Rives was coordinator of the Women's Expo and Health Fair held at Eastern Illinois University. "I am extremely pleased with the national recognition Expo has received. Although I accepted the award, it really goes to all the sponsors and people behind the scenes."

AND THE WINNER IS: Dawn Spicuzza, Miss Illinois 1988, announced the name of Randi Bode of the cold strip department at Granite City Steel as the winner of the grand prize in the company's 1989 Cost Improvement Program super drawing Monday afternoon. Bode won his choice of a 1989 Taurus car or an 18-foot fishing and skiing boat. He chose the car. With Spicuzza, from left, are Mike Gibbons, director of financial services at the plant; Jim Warren, manager of operations analysis and planning, and coordinator of the program; and Bill Swanson, vice president and general manager of the local steel company, a division of National Steel.

Multiple charges filed after fight

MADISON — A series of charges was filed July 1 against two men who allegedly were fighting when police arrived at the corner of Madison Avenue and Second Street, where a small crowd had gathered.

Officers from Madison and Venice broke up the fight, but not without some effort.

Thomas allegedly cursed an officer and pulled free from his grasp, swinging an arm and running into the southbound lanes of Madison Avenue before being arrested.

Both Thomas and Anthony Shoate, 41, of the 200 block of Madison Avenue initially were charged with fighting and assault (one charge).

While being processed at the Madison police station, Thomas allegedly ran from the booking desk through a door and into the lobby, going outside the building. He was pursued down Third Street by Patrolman David Mooshegan.

Thomas then went into the Alpine Cleaners and Laundromat in the 1900 block of Third Street, followed by Mooshegan and two other officers.

The suspect tried to get out of the laundromat door and attempted to hit an officer, it was alleged. During the struggle, Thomas was struck with a nightstick but allegedly continued to strike and kick at officers.

Thomas was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment and then was returned to jail.

In addition to the first charge, Thomas was booked for six counts of resisting arrest and escape. He was transferred to the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville on July 6.

Shoate also was booked on four St. Clair County warrants alleging driving under the influence of alcohol, improper lane usage, speeding and battery.

Madison police

Shoate was transferred July 2 to St. Clair County authorities. He is to appear July 23 in the Granite City court on Madison's charge of fighting and assault.

Vehicle looted of $300

Several items in a locked bag were taken from the parked auto of Malinda S. Marcov of Grenzer Homes, she reported July 3. Missing from the car were $300, a gold bracelet worth $100, a watch valued at $50, a checkbook and a driver license.

Burglar gets $200 cash

In a burglary at the home of Earl Fanning in the 1100 block of McCambridge Avenue, reported July 1, the intruder stole $200 and a Nintendo game tape worth $38. A window had been pried to get inside the residence.

Garage at home looted

A girl's maroon-colored Quinton bicycle valued at $350 and a boy's red Murray bicycle worth $200 were taken in the burglary of a garage at the home of Helen A. Winklemeyer in the 1800 block of Second Street, she reported July 5.

Man injured by another

Rickey G. Greenman, 36, of the 1800 block of Second Street told police he was putting items in a truck in the 1300 block of Madison Avenue when a man grabbed him from behind and shoved his head against the truck. The July 4 attack caused a large laceration over Greenman's left eye.

Battery by man alleged

Michael Anthony Dunnivant, 35, of the 1900 block of Beckwith Avenue was booked for battery July 3. He posted $102 bail and was released, pending an Aug. 4 hearing in Granite City.

Diana L. St. Clair of the 4100 block of South Drive, Pontoon

Beach, alleged she was battered by Dunnivant at his residence. She suffered cuts and swelling to the face, an abrasion to the right arm and bruises to the left side of the chin and lips.

St. Clair, whose shirt was torn during the incident, told officers that she and Dunnivant were arguing in a car and Dunnivant threw the car keys onto grass. While she was looking for the keys, she alleged, he grabbed her and she ran inside the residence and called police.

Police arrest man, 26

Charles Eugene Wickham, 26, of the 800 block of Greenwood Street was booked for battery July 2 following an incident at the residence.

Officers reported hearing yelling from Wickham's apartment when they arrived and said Wickham and Stephanie Stugard of the 800 block of Greenwood Street were fighting in the living room. Wickham was arrested and posted $102 bail.

Man booked for battery

Kenneth Michael Click, 23, of the 900 block of Madison Avenue was booked for battery after police went to his address July 2 in response to a call that a fight was in progress.

Dawn R. Douglas, 24, also of the 900 block of Madison Avenue, alleged Click entered an apartment when they arrived and said Wickham and Stephanie Stugard of the 800 block of Greenwood Street were fighting in the living room. Douglas sustained multiple contusions to the head and redness and swelling to the face.

Goldenberg named to port board

By Andy Siering
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — City Attorney Mark Goldenberg had a busy first meeting Monday evening as a member of the board of commissioners of the Tri-City Regional Port District.

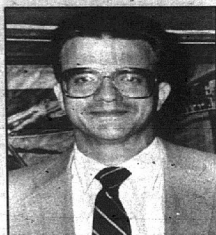

Goldenberg was appointed by Mayor Von Dee Cruse to replace the late Walter "Buck" Simmons on the seven-member board. The governor chooses four members and there also are appointments by the mayors of Madison and Venice.

The attorney, also an accountant and financial advisor, is a former local retail businessman. He has served twice as chairman of successful Cruse campaigns for mayor.

Goldenberg three times got the port board to amend resolutions to include his suggestions.

All three suggestions dealt with financial matters.

The first related to the letting of bids toward the purchase of a

Mark Goldenberg
... named to board

lawn tractor for the district. Goldenberg noted that it was mid-summer and the grass was growing fast, and he suggested that the resolution be amended to allow the district to accept the lowest bid without coming back to the board for approval next month.

The second dealt with the letting of bids for construction of a storage shed. Goldenberg persuaded the board to invite general contractors to submit bids for the entire project. The resolution had been phrased so as to limit bids to four separate contracts in the various construction phases.

The third brought an amendment to the board's consent to allow Granite City Grain Inc. to use its lease agreement with the district as collateral on a mortgage from Magna Bank.

Goldenberg got the board to add a condition that Magna be required to inform the district should the grain company default on the loan, and a stipulation that the terms of the mortgage itself be subject to the approval of the port district's attorneys.

Local views differ after abortion ruling

By Jim Corey
Staff writer

The U.S. Supreme Court abortion decision July 3 has set the backdrop for widely varying opinions.

Susan Morton, director of the Hope Clinic for Women in Granite City, thinks the decision is "very dangerous" for women. The clinic is the site of many abortions.

"The states can now regulate, which could mean certain restrictions on a woman's choice," Morton said. "If Illinois were to vote today, there would definitely be restrictions."

"What we (people who are pro-choice/pro-abortion) are doing and will continue to do is contact as many representatives as possible," she said. "We need safe abortion procedures. It has been proven that women will abort whether it's a safe medical facility or unsafe, unclean surroundings. What it comes down to is the woman's right to privacy."

The Rev. Bernard Goedde of St. Catherine Labourer Church in Cahokia said he favors the states deciding about abortion. "I support the decision because we have very strong pro-life legislators in the state," Goedde said.

"But with both sides battling it out, it's really very hard to predict what the state will do. I'm sure both sides will do their utmost to get their legislation passed."

"I'd like to see both sides get together and reach an agreement. Maybe in the future, we'll favor life more."

Tennis courts may be fixed

GRANITE CITY — The Park Board is investigating the possibility of floating a $150,000 bond issue to finance repair of the tennis courts at Wilson Park and improvements to the park's gardens.

The board heard a proposal Wednesday from a contractor who said the six courts, which are badly cracked and pitted, could be resurfaced using a new overlay technique for about $85,000.

The rest of the money from the bond issue would be used on the gardens, said Park Board President George Sykes.

Park Attorney Randall Robertson is investigating the feasibility of the bond issue, Sykes said.

Recreation program planned

VENICE — The Venice Park District will sponsor a recreation program on Wednesday, July 26, Friday, July 28, Monday, July 31, and Friday, Aug. 4.

The recreation program will include cooking, a free throw contest, baseball games and indoor games. Refreshments will be served all four days.

All interested children between the ages of 5 and 12 must register at the Venice Recreation Center prior to July 26, between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. daily.

The Venice Park District will not be responsible for any accidents which may occur during the program, a spokesman said.

For more information, call 451-7201.

71 to visit White House

VENICE — Seventy-one area residents will be visiting the White House on Saturday, thanks to the efforts of U.S. Sen. Paul Simon.

The Rev. John Henry Williams, pastor of New Salem Missionary Baptist Church, 1349 Klein St., said about 90 percent of those planning to go to Washington this week are members of his church.

"We want to give our special thanks to our senator, Paul Simon of Illinois, who made special arrangements for the White House visit," Williams said Friday.

"We are going to praise God and tour the Washington area," he said.

On Sunday, July 23, the Venice group will join the congregation of St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church in Washington for worship services, Williams said. The Rev. Aubrey Lewis, St. Luke's pastor, has invited the local church members to attend.

"I hope you will express to your friends my best wishes for a most enjoyable visit to the White House," Debbie Romash, director of the Visitors' Office at the White House, said in a letter to Simon which was forwarded to Williams.

The tour will start at 9:45 a.m. Saturday when the local guests arrive at the Visitors' Entrance on East Executive Avenue. The group will travel to Washington by chartered bus.

Surplus auction here Thursday

The Defense Reutilization and Marketing Office, Scott Air Force Base, will auction government surplus materials on July 20 in the General Purpose Auditorium at the Charles Melvin Price Support Center, Granite City.

For additional information, 256-5964/3105 can be called.

CPR techniques class here

GRANITE CITY — CPR will be taught here July 25.

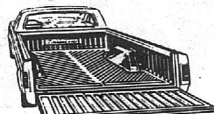

A spokesman said, "CPR is a lifesaver, but it is not difficult to learn. It only takes an evening. Studies have found that most people can perform CPR adequately after the first class."

"Plus, anyone can learn it. There is no major difference in the ability to learn CPR because of gender, educational level, work history, or level of anxiety."

St. Elizabeth Medical Center is offering a CPR techniques class at the Going Strong Wellness Center, 2103 Iowa St.

The class will be held Tuesday, July 25, from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. The class is open to the community. Participants will learn basic life support, Course A (1-rescuer adult CPR and adult CPR and adult CPR). Cost is $5 per person. Preregistration is required.

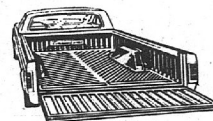

To register or for more information, the Wellness Center can be called at 798-3WEL.

Six area eighth-graders honored with American Legion awards

Six area students were recently named as recipients of the American Legion Award.

The award, which includes a medal and certificate, is given to eighth grade boys and girls who exhibit leadership, courage, scholarship, patriotism and service.

St. Elizabeth School: Steve Lubak and JoAnn Gray. Steve is the son of Tom and Judy Lubak of Granite City; JoAnn is the daughter of Jim and Nancy

Gray of Granite City. Holy Family School: Anne Marie Hewlett and Philip Reznack. Anne Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

Hewlett of Granite City; Philip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reznack of Granite City. St. Mary-St. Mark School: Michael Koelker and Jennifer Romanic. Michael is the son of Harold and Roseann Koelker of Venice; Jennifer is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Romanic of Edwardsville.

Recipients include:

To appear in 'Who's Who'

Christine Marie Woehrl of Granite City has been selected as one of the country's most outstanding music students by "Who's Who in Music."

She will be included in the 1989 edition of "Who's Who in Music," an annual directory of outstanding music students first published in 1974.

A June graduate of Granite City High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harriet Woehrl of Granite City.

Receives degree

A Granite City resident was among the nearly 600 undergraduate students to receive degrees from Bradley University, Peoria, during commencement exercises held in May.

Sharon L. Blankenship received a bachelor of science degree. She is the daughter of Robert Blankenship of Granite City.

2 make honor roll

Southwest Baptist University, Bolivar, Mo., has announced the names of honor roll students for the spring semester.

Two Granite City residents were among those named. Della Corbett, the daughter of James and Laverna Corbett, was named to the president's honor roll for maintaining a grade point average between 3.7 and 3.8 on a 4.0 scale.

Melissa Stinson, the daughter of Wilmer and Mallie Stinson, was named to the honor roll for maintaining a grade point average between 3.0 and 3.49.

Makes honor roll

The spring honor roll at Northeast Missouri State University in Kirksville was led by 200 students who maintained perfect (4.0) grade point averages.

To be eligible for the honor roll, a student must earn at least 12 undergraduate semester hours with a minimum grade point average of 3.5.

One Granite City resident was among students with perfect grade point averages.

Julie Ann Ridlen, a junior mathematics major, is the daughter of Donald and Norma Ridlen.

Monday evening. Republican Secretary of State Jim Edgar, a former Thompson protégé, is expected to announce his run for governor in a series of announcements around the state on Aug. 8.

Hartigan and Edgar both have cultivated strong support among area activists of their respective parties.

Madison County State's Attorney Bill Haine, a former special assistant to Hartigan and long-time supporter, said area Democratic leaders support Hartigan and predicted he would sweep the area in the 1990 election. State Republican Central Committee member Edward Ragsdale of Alton, Jersey County GOP chairman William Roland and State Rep. Tom Ryder, R-Jerseyville, all said Edgar would be a strong candidate for governor in the 1990 election.

Ragsdale said Edgar has attended dozens of area party functions. Sometimes a critic of the governor, particularly over his proposals for tax increases, Ragsdale said Republicans have a better chance of retaining the governorship with Edgar than if Thompson had run for a fifth term.

Rolando, an assistant secretary of state, has worked for Edgar since shortly after he became secretary of state in 1981 and expects to be Edgar's campaign coordinator for south-western Illinois.

Thompson's announcement also is expected to start a game of musical chairs for the other incumbent state constitutional officers who are not ready to retire.

On the Democratic side, State Controller Roland Burris and State Treasurer Jerry Costantino said Thursday they were still considering running for governor.

Costantino predicted he could beat Hartigan in a Democratic primary race.

Burris insisted he is not simply trying to get in position to run for attorney general or secretary of state.

Burris had announced plans to run for attorney general in 1986 but backed out when Hartigan ran for re-election.

Republican Lt. Gov. George Ryan did not preclude a race for governor, but said "My friends and supporters have urged me to run for secretary of state."

Illinois House Majority Leader Jim McPike, D-Alton, however, predicted that Hartigan and Edgar would be the opponents for governor next fall.

McPike also predicted that Burris would be the Democratic nominee for attorney general and Costantino for secretary of state.

He also said he expects Ryan to either run for secretary of state or retire from politics.

McPike and State Democratic

Party Chairman Vince Demuzio

of Carlinville said Thompson would have been a formidable candidate in 1980.

"He's absolutely a master politician. I would never bet against him and he would have had a good chance of winning again," McPike said.

Demuzio said the end of Thompson's long reign would result in an "energized" effort by Democratic workers eager to get the governor's office back after so long. Thompson was first elected in 1976.

•Steel

which sent demand for steel plummeting, the report said. But since 1985, the report said the steel industry's recovery was attributable not to the quotas, but to a falling dollar, higher labor productivity and slower growth in the wages and benefits of workers.

"Consequently," the report said, "the import surge has subsided and the import market share goals set by the Congress and the President for the quota program have been met."

Under the 1984 agreements, 29 steel-producing countries vowed to keep exports to the United States to a total of 20 percent of American consumption. Imported steel, which equaled about 17.8 percent of consumption in 1978, had jumped to 26.4 percent when the VRA was forged.

The GAO study, however, contended that steel imports are now declining. Excluding semi-finished steel, foreign steel imports were only 18 percent of the U.S. market in 1988, the report said.

"Thus, while expiration of the quotas might affect the market for a few individual steel products (particularly semi-finished products), it would likely have little immediate effect of the market as a whole," the report said.

The GAO report added that if a quota-free marketplace resulted in excessive foreign dumping, imported steel, which equaled about 17.8 percent of consumption in 1978, had jumped to 26.4 percent when the VRA was forged.

The GAO study said steel companies have hurt even more by a long-term trend of reduced U.S. demand for steel and by the industry's own inefficiencies. When the dollar's value dropped and the U.S. economy expanded after the 1982 recession, domestic steel companies' output grew and foreign companies lost market share, the GAO said.

"Steel imports peaked as a share of the market in 1984 and have declined every year since then, marking the longest consecutive string of decline in post-World War II history," the report said.

"There's been a lot of draw-backs and delays on that job," he said. "We wanted to start on it last fall when the waterbater was low, but the city engineer wouldn't let us. They waited until the spring when the waterbater was high and we had to pump."

Matt Ozanich, sewer break inspector for the Engineering Department, said Monday the project "should be finished today." He said there was a "good possibility" the site should be cleaned up by the end of the week.

•Pipes

There was the drilling that had to be done and the city doesn't do that. All sites will be done by the middle of August, barring bad weather.

According to Schultze, the problem with cleanup has been a number of factors.

"There was the ground water," he said. "The hole had to be sealed up. Two wells were put in to get rid of the water problem. There were council meetings to get through, approvals, and the well drillers' schedule. Then the line had to be pumped down, and replaced with the sanitary sewers. The wells then had to be extracted. Every time there was an attempt to extract the wells, it would rain. All this took a lot of time. Basically, it was a weather problem."

The companies hired for the job include Institutum of St. Louis, the primary contractor, and two subcontractors, Cardinal Construction Co. Inc. of East St. Louis and Missouri Drilling Co. of St. Louis.

Mary Keely, president of Cardinal, said residents ought to complain to the city.

17 Illinoisans' travel noted with dismay by Ralph Nader

By Edward T. Hearn

Staff writer

WASHINGTON—Seventeen U.S. representatives from Illinois took 35 overseas trips in 1987 and 1988 that cost taxpayers more than $200,000, according to a new study on Congressional travel.

The study, by the Ralph Nader group Public Citizen, said congressional travel cost taxpayers at least $13.5 million in 1987 and 1988 and urged Congress to adopt more stringent reporting standards.

"A constituent interested in evaluating whether his or her representative or senators are engaged in necessary congressional duties or merely junketing is at a loss for information," the study said.

Public Citizen, using partially complete records available to the public, said 80 senators and 306 representatives made 1,086 trips during which 2,400 stops were made. House travel cost $13.5 million and the Senate cost was slightly more than $2 million.

The study said the countries most frequently visited by representatives were Germany, 122 trips; France, 111 trips; and the United Kingdom, 88 trips.

The most trips taken in the most stops in Switzerland, 34; Costa Rica, 26; and France, 26, the study said.

Illinois Sen. Alan Dixon, a Democrat, took no trips. Illinois Sen. Paul Simon, a Democrat, visited three African nations, Greece and Italy, the study said.

Simon's expenses were not listed and the study found Senate transportation expenses are often not listed or identified as military or commercial costs.

The most trips taken in the Illinois delegation were five by U.S. Rep. Terry Bruce, D-Olney, which cost $22,000, and four by U.S. Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, D-Chicago, which cost $47,600, the study said.

The most trips by any member of Congress were by U.S. Rep. Stephen Solarz, D-N.Y., who made 14 foreign nation stops in 39 countries. Solarz is chairman of the Asian and Pacific Affairs subcommittee.

U.S. Rep. Edward Madigan, R-Lincoln, visited three continents and nine countries on government-related travel that cost taxpayers $16,765, according to the new study on Congressional junkets.

Madigan, a nine-term lawmaker, is the ranking minority member of the House Agriculture Committee and the second-ranking minority member of the Energy and Commerce Committee.

"If my boss goes to China for six days with agriculture officials, it's pretty relevant to what he does. He doesn't sit by the pool and sip drinks," said Madigan's press secretary, David Almy.

Jerry Costello, D-Belle-ville, who entered Congress last August, and freshman Rep. Glenn Foshee, D-Carterville, were not listed in the study.

Costello's predecessor, the late Rep. Mel Price, D-East St. Louis, took a four-day trip to France in April 1987, a year before his death in a suburban Washington hospital.

Nola Heiney

Nola M. (Bolten) Heiney, 82, of Granite City, died at 2:50 p.m., Saturday, July 15, 1989, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. She had been ill for five years and was in the hospital for six weeks.

Mrs. Heiney was born Jan. 22, 1907, in Birch Tree, Mo., and had lived in Granite City for 63 years. She was a member of Assembly of God First Assembly Church, where she had been a past president of the Missionary Council for 20 years; Eastern Star 650; White Shrine 78; Rebekah Lodge; and past president for the Senior Citizens of the YMCA from 1972-1973.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Adam Heiney, who died Feb. 15, 1966. They were married Aug. 20, 1925 in Eminence, Mo.

Survivors include two daughters, Lorraine Isbrecht and Marilyn Jones; one brother, Virgil Bolton; one sister, Iris Gann, all of Granite City; one grandchild; four great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

Visitation and funeral were held Tuesday at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 North St. Louis, with the Rev. Dale Edwards officiating. Burial was in St. John Cemetery in Granite City.

•Nurse

"I love school nursing and this has always been my longtime goal," Chapman said.

Raised in Madison, Chapman is glad to be able to give something back to the educational system she attended.

"A lot of people say they don't want to go back to their hometowns," Chapman said. "I don't feel that way. In fact, I'm glad to be given the chance to."

She and her husband, Appellate Judge Charles Chapman, have three children, Christina, who is in Zaire with the Peace Corps; Tom, who is beginning the law program at St. Louis University; and Sarah, a freshman at SIUE.

In a previous meeting, school board members had reluctantly accepted the retirement of Nina Dittman, district nurse since 1955.

Five-week vacation concludes with Dallas wedding ceremony

Gladys Phelps has returned home after a five-week vacation. She went to Rockaway Beach, Mo., on Lake Taneycomo with several friends.

She also visited grandson Wayne Fry and his family in Kimberling City, Mo. She went on to Dallas, where she visited with her son, Jack Fry, and family and her granddaughter, Mrs. Bridget (Fry) Morris, and son, Michael. Later, still in Dallas, she attended the wedding of her granddaughter, Jackie (Fry) Bush, to Mark Ehringer on June 17.

The Fry family is originally from Granite City before they moved to Dallas 11 years ago.

Chester and Kay Andersen; Tina Lyons; Marvin and Opal Vickers; Laura Vickers; Dennis and Debra Vickers; Jerry and Marsha Kirkpatrick and children Dan, Ann, Emily, Timothy, Steven and Sarah; and George and Pearl Albertson, all of this area, attended the funeral of William C. Vickers in Chester, Ill.

Wayne Lyons of Rockwood, Ill., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester (Kay) Andersen.

its guest speaker the Rev. Paul Harvey, who presented "The Event of a Lay Renewal Weekend."

The Vickers and McKenzie family reunion was held July 8 at Fort Kaskaskia State Park in Chester, Ill. Those attending from this area were: Marvin and Opal Vickers, Chester and Kay Andersen, Jerry and Marsha Kirkpatrick, and children Ann, Emily, Timothy, Steven and Sarah.

A Six Flags trip is planned for members of the Pontoon Baptist Church on July 15. The group will leave at 8:30 a.m. Adult supervision is requested. Any members interested in attending should contact Kevin.

Jamie Boswell has returned home to El Paso, Ill., after spending three weeks with her grandparents, Linda and Don Boswell. Her mother, Lynda Boswell, accompanied her home.

Stella Montgomery of Apache Junction, Ariz., is visiting relatives and friends. She is a former resident.

Dean Boswell, Delora Grammer and daughters Deanna and Betsy of Forest Park, Ga., are visiting their parents, Don and Linda Boswell and son, Joey, of Lily Court.

The Pontoon Beach Senior Citizens group held its monthly potluck dinner at their center on June 28.

Attending were: Bob Alfred, Elva Lallament, Ralph and Juanita Craycraft, Kermit and Viola Atkins, Brian and Genny Alfred, Jeri Schieb, Jim Schieb, Mickey Heidbrink, Francis Bringer, Lee Andersen, Loretta Golab, Stanley Golab, George Bass and Lauralu Purcell.

Also, Gladys Bass, Ruby Hocking, Wilmer and Clara Winter, Carolyn Stearns, Mary Hodshire, Helen Meyer, Edna Webster, Alta Stewart, Cindy Alfred, Mary Dorch, Harry Dorch, Bertha Hall, William and Ruth Dagon, Karmyn Edmonds, Joseph Pisel, Lee and Betty Ridgeway, Bell Kreber, Challace Grishy and Gladys Bass.

The next potluck dinner will be at 5 p.m. July 29, with a talent show to follow.

Eagles Auxiliary honors fathers at dinner

The Ladies of Eagles Auxiliary 1126 prepared and served to the men of the aerie a dinner in honor of Father's Day.

Gifts were presented to Aerie President Kenneth Spencer and the "Eagle of the Year" Charles "Chuck" Stokes by Auxiliary President Flo Stokes. Also, the Ladies Auxiliary presented the aerie with a check for $1,200 to help defray costs of a parking lot fence.

Cubmaster Richard Ahlers and Assistant Cubmaster Dale Ferguson of Cub Pack 15, sponsored by the Eagles, presented a trophy awarded by the Aired Temple Shrine for its first-place float in the Shrine Circus Parade.

The regular meeting followed. Reports were given by seven delegates who attended the Illinois state convention held in Freeport, Ill. Chris W. Kubatzke Jr. was installed as Illinois state president.

Delegates to the convention were Kenneth Spencer, Jim Shepard, John Aubuchon, Howard Rinehart, Chris Von Nida, Bob Stanton and Charles Stokes. Five new members initiated during the meeting were Melvin Maier, Richard L. Niehaus Jr., Sterling Farris, John Canavan and Bob Gaughan.

Garden Club ends season with luncheon

Cloverview Garden Club members were entertained with a dessert luncheon by Mrs. Albert Taylor at First Season restaurant in Granite City.

Following the luncheon, President Mrs. Donald Tabor opened the business meeting and led the group in the club collect. Roll call was responded to by naming a flower containing a boy's or girl's name.

The "Show and Tell" horticulture exhibit featured roses brought by members from their gardens, including climbing roses, tea roses and Peace roses.

A bakeless sale was held as a fund-raising project.

Mrs. Orion Johnson, vice president, distributed new yearbooks. The program for the year is botanical gardens throughout this country and abroad. Mrs. B. O'Neill's choice was Cypress Gardens of Winter Haven, Fla., which she visited last year. She displayed photographs and snapshots of the gardens. She stated that Richard Pope and his wife, Julia, left New York in 1931 and set out for Florida where they purchased 16 acres of desolate swampland on the shores of Lake Eloise, then spent five years of arduous work in landscaping.

"They turned it into a breathtakingly beautiful tropical garden," O'Neill stated.

When the transformation had been completed it culminated in a series of canals and paths leading through beds of bougainvillea, hibiscus, azaleas, amaryllis.

Local grandparents welcome grandchild

Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Whitney of Crestwood, Mo., have announced the birth of their daughter, born June 25 at St. Mary's Health Center in St. Louis.

Mrs. Whitney is the former Lynne Krystopa.

The infant has been named Shannon Marie. She weighed 9 pounds, 3 ounces, and was 21 1/2 inches long.

Grandparents are Joe and Rea Krystopa of Granite City and Don and Pat Whitney of Dellwood, Mo. Great-grandparents are Victoria Krystopa and William (Toby) McGee.

Loss puts Triplets under gun

GRANITE CITY — With little margin for error, the Triplets made a couple of big ones that cost them Monday.

A physical error by first baseman Kory Burton and an error in judgment by catcher Joe Wallace led to an unearned run for Alton Post 126 in the seventh inning and a 4-3 loss for Granite City in the opening game of the North Division double elimination playoffs.

The Triplets had to come back and beat Bethalto — a 12-6 loser to Edwardsville in Monday's second game — on Tuesday to face the loser of Tuesday's Alton-Edwardsville game.

Sternberg's hit beats Jerseyville, 2-1

By Mike Kelly
Correspondent

GRANITE CITY — The Optimists kept their division title hopes alive Sunday as they nipped Jerseyville 2-1 at Varsity Field on Tony Sternberg's RBI single in the sixth inning.

The victory gives Granite City an 8-9 record in league play and pulls them into a second-place tie with Jerseyville (8-9) just one game behind first-place Alton (9-7). More importantly, the Optimists (14-4 overall) are now 5-1 in divisional play.

"We picked up a game we really needed," said Granite City manager Paul Kacera. "The advantage is in our favor now, because we've only lost one game in our division. So any kind of tiebreaker is now in our favor."

Jerseyville coach Gary Lyles, taking the tough loss in stride, agreed with Kacera's philosophy. And he likes Granite City's chances of winning the division title.

"Granite City's only lost once in division play," he said. "They're in a very good position. That's why I feel they'll probably win the division with only a couple of games to go in the season. It's really in their hands."

Alton has lost three times in division play and Jerseyville has lost twice. The Optimists played in Cahokia on Tuesday and wrap up the regular season in Waterloo on Friday.

Sunday's game was scoreless going into the sixth inning as Dave Boley of the Optimists and Chris Haynes of Jerseyville hooked up in a dandy pitching duel. Jerseyville finally broke the tie with an unearned run in the top of the sixth.

Scott Warner led off with a double and scored on a two-out error by shortstop Jim McKeehan. The 4-0 lead finally broke the tie for Haynes, who had only allowed a couple of hits up to that point. But Jerseyville's defense wilted in the bottom of the sixth.

McKeehan reached on a two-base error when shortstop Mike Lawrence made a wild throw on his ground ball. After Mike Nordstrom fled out, Dan Parney singled. Left fielder Eric Johnson let the ball get by him for an error and McKeehan scored the tying run. Sternberg came through as he singled sharply to left-center with two outs, scoring courtesy runner Tom Mattern with the go-ahead run.

"The kids fought back real well in a must game," said Kacera. "We told the kids before the game that we weren't out of it yet. It was nice to see Sternberg come around in the clutch. He's got the tools to be a good hitter."

Boley breezed through the seventh to improve his record to 5-1. He turned in another fine performance by walking one, scattering five hits and striking out eight. He got some revenge against Jerseyville after suffering an 8-5 loss against them on July 5.

"The last time I threw against these guys, I just got hammered," he said. "It was a frustrating loss, because we made a lot of errors and gave the game away. But today we managed to stay close and took advantage of things, which allowed us to beat a good team."

NOTES: Granite City split a double-header on Saturday at Freeburg. The Optimists lost the league game 11-6 as Freeburg scored five times in the second inning to wipe out a 3-0 deficit. After the Optimists rallied to within 6-4, Freeburg put the game out of reach with a two-run fifth and a three-run sixth inning. Ryan Reeves (three RBIs) and Chris Mance (3 for 4) highlighted the Granite City offense.

The Optimists rebounded to win the nightcap 9-4, breaking the game open with a five-run sixth. Nordstrom got the win, raising his record to 3-2. Chris Hill had a pair of RBIs.

Miners kick away second game after outslugging Lakers

By Dave Whaley

VALMEYER — Those who might have expected a letdown after a thrilling opening-game victory for the Miners on Sunday sure got it.

Granite City collapsed in the nightcap, committing seven errors which led to seven unearned runs in an 8-1 loss to Valmeyer in Mon-Clair League play. That came on the heels of an exhilarating 11-8 win in 11 innings.

The Miners, who had a chance to reach 500 in Mon-Clair play, are now 8-10 in the league (17-16 overall), one game behind Brooklyn in the race for the first playoff spot with five weeks to go. Valmeyer is 10-8.

"The first game was sure a great one for the fans," said Valmeyer manager Dennis Peeper, whose team out-hit the Miners 17-16 in the two-hour, 50-minute game. "Usually, the wind is blowing in here and that cuts down on the home runs."

But that wasn't the case Sunday. Seven home runs were Chiefs win; now 4-5

 "The Granite City Chiefs raised their record to 4-5 in the 6M League with an 8-6 win over Taylorville on Sunday.
 Chester Banks had a two-run homer while Jeff Dalton added two hits and two RBIs. Dennis Gurkin and Ken Tobill both added two hits. Darrell Harris pitched the last seven innings to pick up his second win in three games.

 "Tony got stronger as the game went on," said Alton manager Karl Doucet. "It was a typical playoff game, but this leaves us in real good shape."
 "I'm not disappointed in the way we played at all," Burnett said. "I would venture to say we hit the ball a little harder than they did. But they got some bloop hits and Kurt Hodge's lead seed right at the center fielder with men at second and third (in the fifth)."

Miners

"It was a little shaky at the end," said DePew, who has been hot with the bat the last two weeks. "They kept coming back, but so did we."

"I'm feeling a lot better at the plate now. That just comes with time. You can't get frustrated and your time will be there," DePew followed Tom Greco's RBI single in the first of Laker starter Chuck Floarke with a two-run shot over the right-field fence for a quick 3-0 lead. But the Miners didn't get another hit until the sixth. The Lakers got one in the second off LeVault and four more in the third on six hits—including a solo homer by Kris Landgraf—for a 5-3 lead.

But Rich Takmajian greeted Terriere with a two-run single to tie the game in the sixth before Bob Sirtak—practically running on one leg after getting hit with a line drive while pitching Friday—beat out a double play grounder as the go-ahead run scored.

Greco got his 12th home run—he now has 38 RBIs—over the boose parked beyond the center-field fence for an apparent insurance run in the seventh. But an infield hit preceded a one-out home run by Laker first baseman Mark Forchuck for a 7-7 tie in the bottom of the seventh.

John Moad's third hit scored Tim Wargo for an 8-7 Miner lead in the ninth, but catcher Wayne Rohlfing denied the caboose with one out in the bottom of the inning.

"Scott throws the ball well, but he continues to get hurt with the bad pitch," DePew said. "He's always ahead of the hitters, but you can't make mistakes with two strikes on most of the hitters in this league."

LeVault has allowed nine home runs this year. But the Miners finally put it away in the 11th. After Greco walked, DePew went deep over the fence to left for his seventh homer, then Doug Rains got his first homer of the year for an 11-8 edge. The Lakers put two men on in the bottom of the inning against Bowen to bring the tying run up, but Chris Shadowens flied to center.

"You know what I was thinking when that last guy came up," Bowen said. "Three-run homer. That's what everyone was thinking. But it seems I do better in relief than when I start."

"Teams get used to the other guys with their hard stuff, then Mark comes in with those breaking balls," DePew said. "He has done a great job in relief."

Minder (6-3) got no relief in the nightcap, although he made two of the seven errors himself with wild pickoff throws. Shadowens had a three-run homer in the first after a couple Jamie Hogan errors prolonged the four-run frame.

Greco doubled home a run in the top of the first, but the Miners didn't get another hit until the sixth and had only four for the game. Scott Schoffer got the win for Valmeyer with five innings in relief of starter Dave Lucht. The Lakers had but five hits themselves as the nightcap took only an hour and a half after the long first game.

"We had a good time in the first game, but I don't know why we came out so flat in the second," DePew said.

"This is the way we'll do it for now with Scott and Rich pitching the Sunday games. We can sure use this week off."

The Miners have no games during the week. They will host heavy-hitting Waterloo (14-4) in a 1:30 p.m. Mon-Clair League double-header on Sunday at Varsity Field. The Mon-Clair League All-Star Game is Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Sauget. Greco, DePew, Tim Hogan and LeVault will play for the North squad.

CENTRAL HARDWARE

Under-cabinet shelf a handy hideaway

For those tired of pushing those loose odds and ends from one end of the kitchen or workshop counter-top to the other, an under-cabinet storage unit might be just the cure.

Made from 1-by-10-inch western lumber, the easy-to-make handy unit takes only an afternoon to build and install.

For a 4-foot unit one will need: two 1-by-10's measuring 48 1/2 inches for the top and bottom; two 1-by-10's measuring 9 1/2 inches for the ends; one 1-by-10 measuring 48 inches for the back; two 1-by-10's measuring 7 1/2 inches for the partitions; and one 1-by-10 by 48 inches for the door. Have on hand three 3/4-inch cabinet hinges, a door pull and two magnetic door latches.

For appearances, one might consider combining solid brass hardware with knotty pine boards finished with a clear sealant.

Mark the area where one will install the unit, making sure it will not interfere with any electrical outlets or switches. Use 2-inch No. 10 flat-head wood screws to fasten the top and bottom boards to the end pieces.

One should be sure to drill pilot holes to make fastening easier and to avoid splitting the wood. The diameter of the holes should be slightly less than that of the screw threads.

Also, holes for countersinking the screw heads will give the project a cleaner, finished appearance.

Next, one should fasten the back in place using the same size screws.

Measure and mark the location of the partitions according to your needs. However, for stability, the space between partitions and end pieces should not exceed 32 inches. Additional partitions may be added according to your needs.

Install the partitions by screwing through the bottom, top and back boards.

Lightly sand the unit so that it is smooth to the touch. Use paint or a stain to finish the wood.

Fasten the unit to the cabinets by screwing up through the unit's top piece. A stub-handled screwdriver will help out in tight corners. And, screws here should be long enough to hold the unit in place, but should not protrude through the bottom of the cabinets.

Attach the door using the cabinet hinges. Install door support chains at both ends. Choose a door pull to match the style of your room.

Helicopter aids visitors on trek of Canada's roof

By Randy Mink
Correspondent

No one in our group was especially rugged or athletic.

But there we were in hiking boots and parkas on the roof of North America, trekking across a craggy glacier surrounded by granite spires glistening in the summer sun.

From a rocky ridge way above the timberline, we gazed down on milky-green glacial creeks, gaping crevasses, snowy peaks and forested valleys — postcard scenery that most view from the bottom up.

The lofty heights of western Canada's Purcell Mountains, once accessible only to hearty backpackers, now are just a helicopter flight away.

The whirlybirds does the vertical work, depositing hikers on snowfields, alpine meadows and craggy summits 7,000 to 10,000 feet up for short periods of easy hiking. It delivers in minutes what would take climbers days to reach.

Helicopter hiking, a concept that has been successful only in the Purcells of British Columbia, projects the armchair traveler into the kind of wilderness adventure he may have experienced vicariously in front of television. Anyone who can walk can handle a "heli-hiking" expedition.

Such trips are organized only by Tauck Tours, of Westport, Conn., in cooperation with Canadian Mountain Holidays (CMH).

Peter Tauck, whose father, company president Arthur Tauck, developed heli-hiking tours in 1976, said the trek's appeal cuts across lines of age and physical ability. The 63-year-old firm, which pioneered motorcoach vacations in America, caters primarily to a mature, upscale clientele.

"We wanted to offer older people an adventure type of holiday, a 'sexy' activity like river rafting and other outdoor experiences so popular these days with younger travelers," Peter Tauck explained.

CATFISH

Farm-Raised Critters Filling Fishy Demand

By Lynn Venhaus
Journal Staff Writer

If you think the only way to prepare catfish is to dredge it in cornmeal and deep-fry, think again. The farm-raised catfish will do just fine in dishes that once called for his fancy ocean cousins, thank you.

There's nothing fishy about it. More and more Americans are turning away from meat and chicken to experiment with fish, and mild, tender catfish is enjoying incredible popularity these days.

Because as Forbes magazine said "Seafood is 'in,' just as the oceans are being fished out," the perfect solution to meeting demand without depleting supply is aquaculture: raising fishes on farms. Most of the catfish, crawfish and rainbow trout—and about 40 percent of the oysters—consumed in this country are raised on farms, reports Irena Chalmers in "The Great American Food Almanac" (Perennial Library, Harper & Row Publishers, 1986).

With catfish's popularity growing with consumers, production continues to climb to meet demand. May production was up 42 percent from a year earlier to 28.9 million pounds, a U.S. Agriculture Department report shows. Through the first five months of 1989, production was 141.2 million pounds, a 15 percent increase from the same period of last year.

Those Southern farmers who always had ponds full of catfish have now turned a backyard hobby into full-blown commercial operations. One of the South's catfish giants, Farm Fresh Catfish Co., had 1985 sales in excess of $40 million from its 3,000 acres of man-made ponds, according to "The Great American Food Almanac."

Catfish is being fried, baked, poached—and barbecued. For a new charcoal sensation, pair grilled catfish with tangy tomato salsa, accompanied by vegetable skewers.

Both are brushed with a special olive oil marinade.

For the adventuresome eater, grilled catfish can be enhanced by adding aromatic wood chips such as mesquite or hickory to the fire as the fish cooks. Barbecue connoisseurs can also experiment with any number of exotic flavor enhancers—grapevine cuttings; apple, peach or cherry woods; alder from the Pacific Northwest, or even fresh herbs, garlic cloves or citrus peelings added directly to the coals.

If you haven't attempted fish on the grill yet, "try it, you'll like it." It actually is very easy and oh, so trendy. According to the Barbecue Industry Association's latest consumer survey, people are using their grills more often—more than half of the people questioned said they barbecue an average of five times a month. And they're experimenting with grilling vegetables, fruit and—yes, even fish.

The once-common catfish is being gussed up for city consumption in all sorts of ways. Here are a few new ways to try catfish—microwaved, stir-fried, and yes, even fried.

When other fresh fish is not available, the ever-reliable catfish can be found. For a set of 10 catfish color recipe cards, send $1 (check or money order) to: RECIPES CARDS, The Catfish Institute, P.O. Box 327, Dept. P, Belzoni, Miss. 39029.

In the meantime, try one of the following new taste treats.

Cajun Catfish

- 1 lb. fresh or frozen catfish fillets, thawed
- 1/2 cup cornmeal
- 1/2 cup pancake mix
- 1/2 tsp. lemon pepper
- 1/2 tsp. thyme
- 1/4 to 1/2 tsp. ground red pepper
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 tbsp. milk
- 1 to 2 tbsp. margarine or butter
- 1 to 2 tbsp. vegetable oil

Combine cornmeal, pancake mix, lemon pepper, thyme and ground red pepper in a shallow bowl or pie plate. Coat fish in combined dry ingredients; dip in combined egg and milk. Coat again in dry ingredients. Pan fry in margarine and oil until fish flakes easily with fork; drain on paper towels. Garnish with parsley and lemon twists, if desired. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Oriental-Style Catfish

- 1 lb. farm-raised catfish fillets
- 3 tbsp. soy sauce
- 1/4 tsp. ground ginger
- 1 clove garlic, finely chopped
- 2 medium green or red peppers, cut into thin strips
- 8 oz. fresh mushrooms, cut into halves
- 3 tbsp. vegetable oil

If catfish fillets are large, cut into 4 serving pieces. Mix soy sauce, ginger and garlic; brush on both sides of fish. Cook and stir green peppers and mushrooms in oil in 10-inch skillet over medium-high heat until crisp-tender, about 6 minutes. Remove vegetables with slotted spoon; reserve.

Cook catfish in same skillet until fish flakes easily with fork, about 8 minutes. Add vegetables; heat just until hot. Serve with hot cooked rice or Oriental noodles, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

Grilled Catfish With Salsa

- 4 farm-raised catfish fillets
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. white pepper
- Olive Oil Marinade (recipe follows)
- Salsa (recipe follows)

Sprinkle fillets with salt and pepper. Place fillets on well-greased grill over medium coals and brush with Olive Oil Marinade. Grill 10 minutes per inch of thickness, turning once, until fish flakes easily. Serve with Salsa. Makes 4 servings.

Olive Oil Marinade

- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1/4 cup red wine vinegar
- 1/4 cup ketchup
- 1 tsp. grated orange rind
- 1/2 tsp. dried oregano leaves
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. celery salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Pinch cayenne pepper
- 1/2 cup olive oil

In medium bowl stir all ingredients except olive oil until smooth. Slowly whisk in olive oil. Refrigerate covered at least one hour. Makes 2 cups.

Salsa

- 2 large ripe tomatoes, peeled, seeded and quartered
- 1 clove garlic, peeled
- 3 green onions, cleaned and chopped
- 4 oz. canned green chilies, chopped
- 1 tsp. olive oil
- 1 tbsp. lime juice
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Cilantro or parsley (dried or chopped fresh) to taste

Combine first four ingredients in food processor or blender until coarsely chopped. Stir in olive oil and lime juice. Add salt, pepper and cilantro or parsley to taste. Let stand for one hour before serving for flavors to develop. Makes 2 cups.

Smoked Catfish Salad

- 2 farm-raised smoked catfish fillets, cut into 1-inch cubes
- 1 yellow or red pepper, grilled and cut into strips
- 1 small red onion, sliced
- 1 tbsp. chopped fresh dill or 1 1/2 tsp. dill weed
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 1/4 cup balsamic or red wine vinegar
- 1 head Boston lettuce, torn
- 2 cups arugula or romaine lettuce leaves, torn
- 4 strips lean bacon, cooked and crumbled
- 3 oz. blue cheese, crumbled
- Salt and pepper

Smoke catfish fillets in covered charcoal grill or water smoker per manufacturer's instructions, and eat into cubes. In large bowl, combine catfish cubes, pepper strips, onion rings, dill, olive oil and vinegar. Cover and marinate 1 hour. Just before serving, toss with Boston and arugula or romaine lettuce, bacon and blue cheese. Salt and pepper to taste. Makes 4 servings.

Microwave Catfish Fillets With Lemon Sauce

- 2 farm-raised catfish fillets (about 3 oz. each)
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- Dash of white pepper
- 2 tbsp. butter or margarine, melted
- 1 tbsp. lemon juice
- 2 tsp. snipped parsley
- 1/4 tsp. paprika

Pat fish fillets dry. Place fish with thickest parts to outside edge in 20-ounce shallow microwavable casserole dish. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Mix remaining ingredients; pour over fish. Cover with waxed paper and microwave on high (100%) until fish flakes easily with fork, 2 to 3 1/2 minutes. Sprinkle with additional snipped parsley. Serve with wild rice and lemon slices, if desired. Makes 2 servings.

Recipes

Cucumber crowns

- 4 1/2 tbs. mayonnaise
2 1/2 tbs. lemon juice
1 tbs. Dijon mustard
1 tsp. dry mustard
Pinch salt
Dash pepper sauce
1 cup shredded cooked crab meat (about 2 oz.)
1 cup packed grated celery root or young parsnips (See Note)
1 tbs. finely chopped parsley
2 1/2 cucumbers (each about 6 inches long)

In medium bowl, combine mayonnaise, lemon juice, Dijon mustard, dry mustard, salt and pepper sauce. Stir until smooth. Add crab meat, celery root and parsley. Stir to mix well. Refrigerate, covered, 3 to 24 hours to blend flavors.

Scrub cucumbers. Trim ends and score with fork. Cut cucumbers in slices, 1/2-inch thick. If not serving immediately, refrigerate, covered with plastic wrap, up to 3 hours.

Just before serving, arrange cucumber slices in single layer on platter. Spoon rounded teaspoonsful of crab mixture in center of each slice, mounding slightly.

Makes about 3 dozen.

Note: All crab meat can be used if celery root is not available. Do not substitute regular celery which has a completely different taste and texture.

Smoked sausage ratatouille

- 3 cups eggplant, cut in 1 1/2 inch cubes
1 tbs. olive oil
2 cloves garlic, minced
6 oz. smoked sausage, cubed
1 medium onion, cubed
1 small zucchini, cubed
1 small yellow summer squash, cubed
1/2 red bell pepper, cubed
1 green bell pepper, cubed
1 tsp. oregano
Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
10 cherry tomatoes, halved
2 tbs. minced parsley
2 oz. wagon wheel pasta, uncooked

Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain. Sprinkle eggplant with salt. Let stand 15 minutes. Drain, rinse and pat dry.

In skillet, heat oil over medium-high heat. Sauté garlic, sausage and onions 2 minutes.

Add zucchini, yellow squash, red and green pepper, oregano, salt and pepper. Continue to sauté 10 minutes. Cover. Simmer 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Add tomatoes, parsley and pasta. Serve hot or chilled.

Makes 4 servings.

More than bananas replenish potassium lost by medication

By Jacqueline Lankier
Registered dietitian
American Heart Association

Like other minerals, potassium is essential for a healthy body. It is necessary to keep a normal water balance between the cells and body fluids. It also plays an essential role in allowing nerves to respond to stimulation and muscles to contract.

Certain medications used to treat heart disease can disturb the amount of potassium in the body. Medication usually prescribed because some individuals with heart disease tend to retain sodium and water results in increased urination and causes a loss of potassium from the body.

To replenish the body's potassium, physicians often recommend eating more potassium-rich foods or prescribe supplemental medicine.

Most people get all the potassium they need from their normal diets, provided their diets are well balanced and include appropriate amounts of the mineral. Different foods contain different amounts of potassium.

Legumes, vegetables and fruits are good sources of potassium and are generally low in calories. The best sources of potassium include bananas, cantaloupes, grapes, nectarines, oranges and potatoes with skin.

An average serving of any one of these is less than 100 calories and contains 400 milligrams or more of potassium.

Fresh foods are usually higher than processed foods in vitamin and mineral content. Because potassium dissolves in water, food loses the mineral when exposed to water during cooking. Logically, it is prudent to cook vegetables in the skins and with as little added water as possible. For example, a baked potato has about twice as much potassium as a serving of mashed potatoes.

The following baked potato recipe will dress up any plain meat, poultry or fish entree. It is low in fat and cholesterol, yet loaded with potassium.

Stuffed baked potatoes

- 6 large baking potatoes, washed, dried
- 1 cup or more low-fat cottage cheese
- Garlic to taste
- 2 green onions
- 2 tsp. parmesan cheese
- Paprika

Prick skins of potatoes. Bake at 425° for 60 minutes or until done. To reduce cooking time, put metal skewer through each potato. Cut slice from top of each baked potato. Scoop out pulp.

In blender, whip cottage cheese until creamy. Mash potato pulp and blend in enough whipped cottage cheese to make light, fluffy mixture. Stir in green onions.

Spoon mixture back into shells, mounding slightly. Place potatoes on baking sheet. Dust tops with parmesan cheese and paprika. Return to oven until lightly brown.

Makes 6 servings; about 115 calories, 1.2 gm. fat, 101 mg. sodium and 4 mg. cholesterol each.

Fruit salad

- 1/2 cup chicken broth
- 2 tsp. lemon juice
- 1 tsp. cornstarch
- 1 (15 oz.) can pineapple chunks in juice, drained

- 1 pt. strawberries, halved
- 3 kiwifruit, peeled, sliced, halved
- Lettuce leaves

In small saucepan, combine chicken broth, honey, lemon juice and cornstarch. Cook, stirring, over medium-high heat until mixture thickens and boils. Boil 1 minute. Cool, stirring occasionally. Blend dressing with pineapple, strawberries and kiwi. Serve on lettuce leaves. Garnish as desired. Makes 6 servings.

In the good ol' summertime coleslaw's crunch satisfies

Fresh, crisp and succulent salads tell as much about the season as sunshine. One delicious salad for any season is Spicy Crunchy Coleslaw.

This Caribbean-styled recipe combines the exciting textures and flavors from crisp green cabbage, chilled red bell pepper, roasted peanuts and the special addition of thick banana slices. Coating the coleslaw is a creamy, cumin-flavored dressing so unique it tantalizes the appetite for second helpings.

Spicy Crunchy Coleslaw is a fiber-rich and nutritious addition to any meal. The readily available ingredients in this recipe provide substantial amounts of vitamins A and C, as well as niacin, potassium and phosphorus.

rus.

Spicy Crunchy Coleslaw is a snap to make and tastes good in the outdoors. Simply toss together for picnics, barbecues or family get-togethers. Serve it with sandwiches, barbecued meats or hot dogs.

Spicy crunchy coleslaw

- 2 bananas, peeled, sliced
- 1 medium cabbage, coarsely shredded
- 1 red bell pepper, julienne cut
- ½ cup salted peanuts
- ½ cup dairy sour cream
- ½ cup mayonnaise

- ½ cup half-and-half
- 2 tbsp. vinegar
- 1 tbsp. lemon juice
- 1 tsp. sugar
- ½ tsp. ground cumin
- Salt and pepper to taste

In large salad bowl, combine bananas, cabbage, bell pepper and peanuts.

In separate bowl, mix together sour cream, mayonnaise, half-and-half, vinegar, lemon juice, sugar, cumin, salt and pepper. Add to slaw. Toss thoroughly.

Chill 30 minutes.

Makes 8 servings; 194 calories, 3.8 gm. protein, 14 gm. fat, 16.3 gm. carbohydrate, 85 mg. sodium, 15.4 mg. cholesterol each.

COMBINING BANANAS, peanuts and red bell pepper in coleslaw sounds extraordinary, but it is truly delicious.

CHOCO-VANILLA-BERRY Ice Cream Pie has a little something for every taste.

Pie and ice cream go beyond ala mode style

A dream of a perfect company's coming summer dessert might start with visions of cool creaminess, laced with an intense fruit flavor, encased in a rich shell, and topped with a drizzle of something chocolate. The optimum result of such dreaming could well be Choco-Vanilla-Berry Ice Cream Pie.

Picture-pretty, it combines full-flavored vanilla ice cream with raspberry sherbet and chilled fudge topping. The crust is a superb surprise — crushed windmill cookies, laden with almonds and a few more to boot. It is a crisply compatible foil for the filling flavors.

Choco-Vanilla-Berry Ice Cream Pie can be made up to a week in advance and kept frozen. Before serving, allow it to soften slightly for easier cutting by placing it in the refrigerator 20 to 30 minutes. Drizzle with the remaining fudge topping and, if desired, sprinkle with fresh raspberries.

Choco-vanilla-berry ice cream pie

- 1 1/2 cups crushed windmill cookies
- 1/2 cup finely ground almonds
- 6 tbsp. butter, melted
- 1 qt. vanilla ice cream, softened
- 1/2 cup fudge topping
- 1 qt. raspberry sherbet, softened

Combine crushed cookies, almonds and butter. Mix well. Press on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie plate. Bake 8 to 10 minutes at 350° until golden. Cool completely on wire rack. Freeze until firm, about 1 hour.

Spread half vanilla ice cream in bottom of pie crust. Spread half fudge topping over ice cream. Freeze until firm.

Refrigerate remaining topping. Spread half raspberry sherbet over vanilla ice cream and chocolate. Freeze until firm. Spread remaining vanilla ice cream over raspberry sherbet, leaving center open.

Scoop remaining raspberry sherbet in balls, using small ice cream scoop. Place in center of pie. Return to freezer. Freeze until firm.

At this point, if planning to keep pie longer than overnight, wrap in freezer paper. May be kept frozen up to one week.

To serve, remove pie from freezer. Place in refrigerator 20 to 30 minutes. Just before serving, drizzle remaining fudge topping over entire pie. Sprinkle with fresh raspberries.

Grape salsa for tortilla roll-ups

- 1 cup grapes, seeded if necessary, chopped
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 1/2 cup Anaheim chili, seeded, chopped
- 2 tbsp. olive oil
- 2 tbsp. chopped cilantro
- 2 tbsp. red bell pepper, chopped
- 1 tsp. lime juice
- 1 tsp. white vinegar
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- Salt to taste
- 4 flour tortillas

Cheese Spread

*Combine grapes, onion, chili, olive oil, cilantro, red bell pepper, lime juice, vinegar, garlic and salt.

Spread tortillas with Cheese Spread. Spoon 1/4 cup salsa on each tortilla. Roll up. Cover. Refrigerate at least 1 hour.

Cut in 1-inch slices.

Makes 26 appetizers.

Cheese Spread: Combine 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese and 1/2 cup (3 ounces) finely shredded cheddar cheese. Mix thoroughly. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

We're Sorry!

In this week's Sale circular, we advertised sold-out jeans by No Excuses for $18.99 on page 2. Due to the manufacturer's inability to ship, the bow back zip leg style may not be available in some stores at the beginning of the week. As a convenience to our customers, we will issue rain checks.

On page 7 we advertised toddlers' two-piece sleep sets for $7.99. Due to manufacturer's inability to ship, sleep sets will be in limited supply at the beginning of the week. As a convenience to our customers, we will issue rain checks. The Olympia and Deco styles will be available in all sizes.

On page 8 we advertised percale sheet sets for $12.99. Due to manufacturer's inability to ship, quantities of the Teos style comforter will be in limited supply in queen/king size only. As a convenience to our customers, we will issue rain checks. The Olympia and Deco styles will be available in all sizes.

On page 9 we advertised 52" ceiling fans for $49.99. Due to manufacturer's inability to ship, an average of 16 fans per store will be available at the beginning of the week. Additional quantities will be available later in the week.

We regret any inconvenience this may cause you.

Recipes

Primavera salad

- 1 can (20 oz.) whole tomatoes, drained, chopped
- 1 can (16 oz.) mixed vegetables or peas and carrots, drained
- 1 can (4 oz.) mushrooms, sliced or stems and pieces, drained
- 12 pitted ripe olives, cut in half
- cup olive or salad oil
- 2 tsp. red wine vinegar
- 2 tsp. sugar
- 2 tsp. dried basil, crushed

- 1/4 tsp. garlic powder
- 1 lb. linguine or angel hair pasta, uncooked
- Salt and pepper to taste

Cook linguine according to package directions. Drain. Rinse under cold running water.

Combine drained tomatoes, mixed vegetables, mushrooms and olives in salad bowl.

Combine oil, vinegar, sugar, basil and garlic powder. Pour over vegetables. Add drained pasta. Toss. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Makes 6 servings.

Carrot-rice squares

- 1 lb. carrots, shredded (3 cups)
- 1 cup uncooked rice
- 1 (13 1/2 oz.) can chicken or beef broth
- 1 1/4 cups (6 oz.) shredded Swiss cheese
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 1/2 tsp. nutmeg

In large covered saucepan over medium-high heat, bring carrots, rice and broth to boil. Reduce heat. Simmer 20 minutes or until rice is done. Do not drain. Stir in cheese, milk, eggs and nutmeg.

Pour into 10-by-6 inch baking dish. Bake at 350° for 30 to 35 minutes or until center is set. Let stand 5 minutes. Cut in squares to serve. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Fruity wine punch

- 4 tea bags
- 2 cups boiling water
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 bottle chablis wine, chilled
- 1 carton (64 oz.) fruit beverage
- 1 bottle (7 1/2 oz.) lemon juice from concentrate

Pour boiling water over tea bags. Cover. Let stand 5 minutes. Remove tea bags. Add sugar and bitters to hot tea. Stir until sugar dissolves.

Just before serving, add wine, fruit beverage and lemon juice. Stir well. Keep cold with ice ring, block or cubes. Makes 30 servings (about 1/2 cup each).

Recipes

Creamy mint tarts

36 chocolate mint sandwich cookies, finely rolled (about 2 cups crumbs)
 1/2 cup margarine, melted
 24 marshmallows or 2 cups miniature marshmallows
 1/2 cup milk
 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
 1/2 cup green creme de menthe
 2 tsp. white creme de cocoa
 Chocolate curls, for garnish

Combine cookie crumbs and margarine. Press 2 tablespoons crumb mixture in each of 12 paper-lined 2 1/2-inch muffin cups. Chill.

In large saucepan over medium heat, stir together marshmallows and milk until smooth. Cool to room temperature.

Fold whipped cream and liqueurs into marshmallow mixture. Spoon into prepared tart shells. Freeze 4 hours or until firm.

To serve, remove paper liners. Garnish with chocolate curls. Makes 12 tarts.

Polynesian pasta

8 oz. wide egg noodles, uncooked
 1 lb. mozzarella cheese, cut in 1/2 inch cubes
 1 can (16 oz.) unsweetened pineapple chunks, drained, reserving juice
 1/2 lb. snow peas, blanched
 1 bunch green onions, chopped
 1 can (8 1/2 oz.) water chestnuts, drained, sliced

 1 small red onion, thinly sliced
 1/2 cup oil
 1 to 1 1/2 tsp. salt
 2 tsp. red wine vinegar
 1 tsp. grated fresh ginger

Cook pasta according to package directions. Rinse with cool water. Drain.

In large bowl, place cooked pasta, cheese, pineapple chunks, snow peas, green onions, water chestnuts and red onions. Whisk together oil, salt, vinegar, reserved pineapple juice and ginger. Toss gently with pasta mixture. Refrigerate. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

TAKE ONE MINUTE

It Will Take Just A Few Seconds To Determine Your Cancer Risk Factors—And Those Few Seconds Could Mean Everything.

(Check each box that applies to you)

Head and Neck Cancer

- ☐ Tobacco use of any kind (cigarette, cigar, pipe, snuff, or chewing tobacco).
- ☐ Alcohol use.
- ☐ X-ray treatment to the face or neck as a child or young adult.
- ☐ Poor oral hygiene.
- ☐ Ill-fitting dentures.
- ☐ Exposure through work or hobby to wood dust, coal, iron ore or nickel.

Breast Cancer

- ☐ A family history of breast cancer.
- ☐ No children or first birth after age 30.
- ☐ Some forms of chronic benign breast disease.
- ☐ Beginning menstrual periods early (before age 12).
- ☐ Late menopause (after age 50).
- ☐ A high fat intake.
- ☐ A family history of ovarian, endometrial (uterus) or colon cancer.

Prostate Cancer

- ☐ Family history of prostate cancer.
- ☐ Black race.
- ☐ High fat diet.
- ☐ Alcohol abuse.

Skin Cancer

- ☐ Light or fair complexion.
- ☐ People with a history of sunburns.
- ☐ Frequent work or play outdoors with exposure to the sun.
- ☐ Exposure to certain chemicals through work or hobby (coal, pitch, asphalt, petroleum).
- ☐ Frequent exposure to X-rays or radiation.
- ☐ Scars from previous burns.
- ☐ Repeated trauma or injury to an area resulting in scars.

Testicular Cancer

- ☐ History of undescended testes (cryptorchidism).
- ☐ Family history of testicular cancer.

Colon-Rectal Cancer

- ☐ Family history of colon cancer.
- ☐ 10-year history of ulcerative colitis.
- ☐ Family history of polyps or Gardner's Syndrome.
- ☐ Personal history of Crohn's Disease or polyps.
- ☐ High fat or low fiber diet.
- ☐ Female gynecological or breast cancer.

Endometrial Cancer

- ☐ Family history of endometrial cancer.
- ☐ Infertility problems.
- ☐ No pregnancies.
- ☐ Diabetes.
- ☐ Obesity.
- ☐ High blood pressure.
- ☐ Irregular menstrual periods.
- ☐ Prolonged use of estrogen hormones.

Cervical Cancer

- ☐ Sexual activity before age 18.
- ☐ More than one sexual partner.
- ☐ Personal history of Herpes infections.
- ☐ Personal history of dysplasia of the cervix.
- ☐ More than 5 pregnancies.
- ☐ Smoking.

Everyone has some risk factor. That does not mean you have cancer, or that you will develop cancer. However, the American Cancer Society estimates that 25% of Americans will have some form of cancer in their lifetimes, so the presence of risk factors should be discussed with a physician.

Most forms of cancer can be successfully treated if they are detected in early stages, and low cost cancer "screening" tests are an excellent means of early detection.

For more information on cancer screening tests, call 618-474-8000—Or come in at your convenience.
